SOME RECORDS BROKEN.

The largest crowd of the week, bar Labor Day, was out to Harlem yesterday and witnessed a cracking good day's sport. The track was lightning fast and two track records were smashed to smithereens, Jiminez lowering the mark for one mile and seventy yards from 1:43 1/2 to 1:41 1/2 and Nellie Waddell chipping off three-tenths of a second from the half mile figures and making it 47 1/2. The star event of the day was the Sapling Stakes, a half mile scramble for two-year-olds, some of the best babies in the west going to the post. Ed Austin was made the choice in the betting but the best he could do was to run third, Nellie Waddell jumping into the lead at flag dip and fairly smothering her field with speed. She led by from two to three lengths all the way and won eased up by three from Megi, who beat Ed Austin a length and a half for second place. Megi put up a fine performance and undoubtedly ran the best race of her career. Ed Austin was badly outrun in the first quarter, but closed up strongly, although he was not good enough to beat Megi in the final stride. Emation about ran his race. Rosewar was always outrun.

Jiminez was in grand fettle yesterday, showing a turn of speed in the third race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards, that has rarely been witnessed anywhere. He led by a good safe margin from start to finish, winning easily by two and a half lengths from Federal, which beat Charley O'Brien five lengths for second place. Coburn in Federal made a determined effort to close on the winner in the last quarter, but gave it up as a bad job long before the last sixteenth had been reached. There was a spirited struggle for third place between Charley O'Brien and Argregor in the last quarter, the former gaining the verdict on the post by a head.

Burnie Bunton's race with Money Muss on August 31 put her on keen edge, and she dashed off six furlongs yesterday, in the second race in the fast time of 1:12 1/2, beating Headwater easily by two lengths, the latter finishing six in front of The Lady for second place. Burnie Bunton showed the most speed for the entire route, and try as he would Knight on Headwater could not close up on her in the final eighth. The Lady ran an indifferent race, and besides being interfered with was far from being up to a good bruising contest.

Mistral II. and Wyeth are the first two-year-olds that were asked to go a mile in the west this year. The former with his light impost of seventy-two pounds surprised nearly every one present by taking the lead in the fifth race at flag fall and maintaining it to the end, winning under persuasion by two lengths from Anthracite which beat Brutal a head for second place. The last named was undoubtedly the best, was given an incompetent ride by Ransom who not only had the gelding cut off badly at the first turn losing a number of lengths but could not get him into his stride until well into the backstretch. By the time he got the gelding to extending himself there was almost twelve lengths separating him from the leader. He made up much ground after the half-mile post had been reached, but it took too much out of him and he had nothing left to finish with. Kuja ran a fair race, but swerved slightly toward the outside rail in the closing strides. Wyeth, considering the weight he carried, put up a fair performance. Major Dixon closed up ground while coming down the last quarter.

Belle of Mineo dropped out of the clouds in the sixth race, as she did once before in the early part of the season, and won in a rather handy fashion at long odds. She came strongly in the last eighth, beating Dodie S. to the wire by a length, the latter finishing one in front of Step Onward for second place. The last named ran a sparkling race and would certainly have won with any kind of racing luck. She was almost last when going down the backstretch, but picked her field up fast in the last quarter and was running past horses at the end. Both Buzzer and Mabel Winn quit badly when the pinch came.

An unwieldy field of eighteen maiden three-year-olds lined up to the barrier in the first race a dash of six furlongs. The crowd backed everything in the race, but the talent hit upon the right one, Della Ostrand, who ran a clever race and had no trouble at the end in winning by three lengths. Haidee was second, a length in front of Riverdale. Haidee showed a fine turn of speed for five and a half furlongs, but faltered when the pinch came. Riverdale was right there all the way. Birch Tree and Utilize both well up for five furlongs, fell away beaten in the final eighth.

Besides buying Federal for $5,000 yesterday Sam Hildreth ran Denman Thompson up to $3,000 after his winning race and became his owner at that figure.

After Belle of Mineo had won W. Carroll bid her up to $800, a run up of $200, and is now her owner.

Jockey Sullivan was fined $100 by the judges for fouling The Lady with Anna Bain. The starter fined Coburn $25 for misconduct while at the post and McInerney was set down for the week for a similar offense.

A little fellow named Mayo, employed as an exercise lad by one of the stables at the track, was struck by a Wisconsin Central train yesterday and instantly killed.

A RECESS AT KINLOCH.

Racing at Kinloch has been discontinued temporarily, the announcement being made that it will be resumed next week. This is no doubt mainly due to the failure of the stewards of the Western Jockey Club to restore to racing privileges the list of owners desired by the Kinloch officials. Their action in this respect was certainly surprising in view of the general impression that their course in admitting a big list of owners to Western Jockey Club privileges was due to a desire to aid Kinloch. As it is the Kinloch people are no better off in respect to horses than they were last week, and they have stopped racing awaiting the decision of the courts in the cases now pending affecting Delmar. As to how the action of the Western Jockey Club is viewed in St. Louis the Republic of yesterday says:

"Who's nearly forty horsemen, who deserted a lucrative field at Delmar a month ago and are now stabled at Kinloch, were denied reinstatement by the Western Jockey Club at its monthly meeting, John S. Bratton, who has kept on steadily racing at Delmar, an unrecognized course, was taken unconditionally into the fold by the same body. Bratton signified his reinstatement by winning two purses at Delmar and $2,500 in bets.

"To add to the ridiculous side of the whole matter, Fucino, the only new entry at Kinloch yesterday, who was reinstated, was denied the right to start by Judge Murphy upon the latter discovering that the gelding's entry had been refused at New Orleans last winter by Judge Rees. Thus of all the fresh entries at Kinloch published yesterday morning not a single animal was able to start.

"At the same time that Bratton was reinstated a lot of owners, trainers and jockeys from the Canadian and Newport meetings were also replaced in good standing. Applications from Winner—B. f. by Florist—Fannie Willoughby.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Flora Pomona evidently ran in much improved form on a hard, fast track. Always prominent, she drew to the front a furlong from the finish and was going away at the end. Rose of May displayed brilliant speed and stuck to her work well. She suffered to some extent by running in too close attendance on the fast pace set by Hatasoo. The latter, however, was under a terrific pull to the stretch and trying to place the Featherstone filly, probably cost her the race. Octoaron was closing very fast at the end and is steadily improving. Royal Sue broke slowly and was carried wide, but made up a lot of ground, finishing like a whirlwind and evidently wants a route. The others are very moderate.

Scratched—28097 Emma A. M., 104; 27504 Lady Godiva, 104.

Overweights—Octoaron, 1 pound.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Golden Grain, cleverly handled, came with a rush in the stretch. Arak, off poorly, ran around the field on both turns with a good burst of speed and appeared like winning in the stretch. Lamp o'Lee was going the fastest at the end. Somerset was prominent throughout and going very easy to the stretch and was probably short. He had worked well. Welsh Girl put up a surprisingly improved race.

Winner—Br. c. by Henry Young—Quiver.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Heno, off slowly, ran green and was bearing out on the turn, but finished with a rare burst of speed through the last quarter and was undoubtedly best. Leonora Loring showed her usual speed and hung on gamely at the end. Cameron broke with the rear ones and was repeatedly interfered with throughout the race. Excepting the winner, he was going much the strongest at the end. Presumption ran impressively. Arsenal was unable to concede the weight and is probably better on a soft track. Cornwall is fast but faint hearted.
Scratched—28006 Otis, 127; 28039 Peninsula, 110.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Water Cure outclassed the others at the weights, trailed to the stretch where he went to the front with ease and is in great form now. Decaeter was at a disadvantage in being compelled to make pace for the others and was lucky to beat Kamara for second money. Kamara ran in improved form and will give a good account of herself on the regular track.

A RECESS AT KINLOCH.

the owners stabled at Kinloch were all turned down, and many horsemen who have been living from hand to mouth lately in the hope of reinstatement are thus placed in a very awkward position.

"Great disappointment was felt by the Kinloch management over the unexpected action of the Jockey Club, and they are at a loss to understand the motives of the Chicago body. Judge Joseph Murphy, who worked hard to get the horsemen reinstated, was much astonished over the turn of affairs, and stated that he thought Kinloch had been treated very badly.

"When I was in Chicago last week," he said, "I went to the offices of the Western Jockey Club with President Bush of the New Orleans course, Secretary Nathanson of Harlem and Montgomery of Memphis. We had a short consultation with Mr. Kuhl there, and all three promised to vote for the reinstatement of the horses stabled here. Mr. Perkins of Latonia had also promised to vote in the affirmative.

"This made four out of the six votes in the Jockey Club, and I received positive assurances of success. These promises seem to have been disregarded, however, and I find but two owners have been replaced in good standing, while a lot of others, stabled elsewhere and that can do this meeting no good, have been reinstated without prejudice."

"Kinloch has been treated very shabbily by the Western Jockey Club in this matter, and we have received a bad deal from that body all round. No assistance has been given us other than permission to give $300 purses, and I can not understand the matter at all. There is great disappointment among the horsemen here over the matter."

"The same sentiments prevailed among the horsemen. When the first hopes of reinstatement were held out, many horsemen deserted Delmar and stabled at Kinloch, thinking that action would be taken on their cases immediately. As they will be in rather an unpleasant situation if they return to Turf Congress tracks, they are in anything but a pleasant frame of mind over the matter."

"The whole question seems to hinge on Kinloch's ability to take care of itself. Had Delmar been closed, thus making Kinloch all powerful here, it could certainly have had anything it wished at the hands of the Jockey Club. As it seemed to be getting the worst of the war, however, and was not, consequently, an important factor in the racing situation at large, the Western Jockey Club seems to have decided to let the track look out for itself.

"Holding back the question of reinstatement until an injunction was issued against the Delmar course, and then refusing to reinstate the horsemen stabled at Kinloch when it found the Delmar injunction was disregarded, seems to indicate that the Western Jockey Club has kept well posted on the local situation, and has used the Kinloch track as a cat's paw—to be made much of if it proved a factor here, and to be left to its own devices if it got the worst of the local fight."

GARDEN CITY WEIGHTS.

The Garden City Stakes, a handicap at six furlongs, with $1,500 added, will be the feature at Harlem, Saturday. It had 117 nominations originally, of which Midsummer and W. Overton are dead. Nearly all of the fast sprinters of the west are in, and so many are now here and in the best of form, that an exceptionally big field and sharp contest can be counted as assured. Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Ela Duke.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. Duellist ran a grand race, was right throughout and finished in very game fashion, but was lucky to beat Belle of Lexington, which easily retained the lead until in the last stride where her jockey rode badly. She is in the best form of her career and stays unusually well. Chuctanunda ran as if short and is a big doer and needs a lot of racing to fit him. Alard Scheck closed with a tremendous rush in the stretch after being away out of the race. He lacks early speed to a marked degree and will beat good ones when placed right over a longer distance. Lady Uncas and Himself ran well but were outclassed.
Scratched—27892 Voter, 138.
Overweights—Duellist, 2 pounds; Himself, 3.
Duellist, show, even. Belle of Lexington, show, 3 to 5. Chuctanunda, show, out. Alard Scheck, show, 3 to 5.

Went to post at 5:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bedeck, perfectly handled, was in a soft spot and outclassed his field. Speedmast put up a game race under a vigorous ride and acts well over a distance and liked the grass track. Dolando is hardly as good as formerly and had no mishaps. Disturber showed well to the stretch.

Winner—B. g. by Bootmaker—Charlie.
Went to post at 2:32. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Boot's win was largely due to Dale's clever ride. He was well saved in the early part of the race, came through a small opening at the stretch turn and was kept going under a strong finishing ride. Fearful was much the freshest horse at the end, and would have won as it was had he not swung wide when coming into the stretch. Ben Frost ran a good race, but the weight hurt his bed forelegs. Dick Hobson, away badly, showed a lot of early speed and was probably second best. Metoxen pulled up very lame.
Boot, show, 2 to 3. Fearful, show, 50 to 1.

28110 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 2-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g. by Lycourge—Mary B.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second handily. Ed L. was clearly the best. Snell rated him well, but was weak in his finish. Delarte was much favored by the start and well handled. H. S. Tobacco was away running and appeared like a winner to the last furlong, he then tired and quit. Dominia ran a remarkably good race, though out of it from the start. The start left the last three without a semblance of a chance.
Scratched—27872 Miss Conroy, 102; 28012 Mrs. Grannan, 95.
Ed L., show, out. Delarte, show, 7 to 10. H. S. Tobacco, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by The Commoner—Elletta.
Went to post at 3:39. At post 2 minutes. Start good for all but Hunter Raine. Won easily; second the same. Attelle came away at the three eighths and won as her rider pleased. Hunter Raine ran away badly and began slowly as usual, but finished very strongly. Sister Sarah ran a good race for a first out in two months. She faltered at the three-eighths as if something went wrong, then came again with great determination. Mada Bell, usually a strong finisher, had no mishaps and ran somewhat below her form.
Attelle, show, out. Hunter Raine, show, out. Sister Sarah, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Terra Cotta—Utopia.
Went to post at 4:11. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Terra Incognita was saved and nursed while the other contenders were bumping and fighting on the turns. When the real race began he was freshest and came away easily. Satin Coat did his best but is not a front runner. Aurea ran a good race. Guide Rock did not show his usual early speed and was out of twice in his efforts to assume the lead. He might have been a contender had he not been seriously interfered with at the three eighths. Outburst wants a soft track, but little Charles D. was a spectator. The Golden Prince showed speed.
Overweights—Guide Rock, 2 pounds; Charles D., 4.
Terra Incognita, show, out. Satin Coat, show, out. Aurea, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Rayon d'Or—Glen Belle.
Went to post at 4:49. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won pulled up; second easily. Teucer showed remarkable improvement. In his three previous outings he showed early speed but quit at four furlongs and was beaten off at six furlongs in 1:16 three days prior to this race. He cantered a mile in track record time today. The others never had a chance and ran their races. O'Neill gave Empryal a very bad ride.
Scratched—28048 Eight Bells, 102; 27951 Emily Oliver, 92.
Overweights—Benham, 3 pounds.
Teucer, show, 2 to 1. Eleven Bells, show, out. Barnett's Walkaway, show, 1 to 2.
